

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

A Taste of the English Riviera: The Biggest Seafood Festival in South Devon Returns

The English Riviera's seafood festival returns this autumn, serving up two weeks of fresh-from-the-coast flavours, chef-led experiences and exclusive menus

This autumn, the English Riviera will once again celebrate one of its greatest natural assets as England's Seafood FEAST returns with a standout line-up of events.

Now firmly established as one of the area's signature food events and a must-do occasion for seafood 'foodies', the highlight of the culinary calendar will return from Monday 21 September to Sunday 04 October.

Restaurants, cafés, pubs and hotels across Torquay, Paignton and Brixham will create exclusive menus and tasting experiences celebrating locally landed seafood to shine a spotlight on the acclaimed seafood hotspot of the UK.

With more than 50 species of fresh fish and seafood on offer at Brixham Fish Market, which delivers to the local eateries and beyond, visitors are invited to experience the freshest catch possible, served straight from the area's crystal waters.

From harbourside dining and chef-led tasting menu experiences to seafood safaris and locally landed specialities, England's Seafood FEAST invites everyone to discover the destination's exceptional hospitality and coastal charm.

Local dining favourite, The Elephant, owned by Michelin-starred chef, Simon Hulstone, makes a notable return to the festival, offering visitors the opportunity to experience one of the UK's finest seafood culinary destinations.

Kelly Widley, Seafood FEAST Programme Curator, said: "England's Seafood FEAST provides a fantastic platform to showcase our restaurants, support local businesses, encourage visitors to extend their stays and reinforce the destination's reputation as England's Seafood Coast.

"Every booking made during the FEAST supports local businesses and helps celebrate an industry that continues to shape our communities for generations to come."

Carolyn Custerson, Chief Executive Officer of the English Riviera BID Company, commented:

"Celebrating the English Riviera's world-class seafood and coastal charm is something the whole destination looks forward to every year.

"Whether you're looking for fine dining overlooking the coast, a relaxed seafood platter on the harbourside, traditional fish and chips, or something completely different, there's something to suit every taste and every budget."

With new events and participating venues being added to the line-up, now is the perfect time to start planning the ultimate seafood adventure.

For more information on England's Seafood FEAST, please visit:

<https://www.englishriviera.co.uk/whats-on/featured-events/seafood-feast>.

ENDS

NOTES TO EDITOR:

For all enquiries, please contact: 07917 827057 or email juliet@four-pr.com.

About the English Riviera

The English Riviera Business Improvement District (BID) Company is a collaborative effort between over 1,000 local businesses, authorities, and stakeholders dedicated to enhancing the tourism experience and promoting sustainable economic growth for Torbay.

With 22 miles of stunning coastline, the English Riviera covers Torquay, Paignton and Brixham. Torquay is the birthplace of Agatha Christie, the world's greatest crime writer, and the resort offers a vast array of cultural and historic attractions, water activities, spas, festivals, entertainment and food and drink experiences.

As a designated UNESCO Global Geopark, the English Riviera has gained international recognition for its 400 million years of geological heritage and is promoted as one of Earth's Extraordinary Places.' The resort is also an international cruise port.

For more information for consumers, visit www.englishriviera.co.uk and for businesses, visit www.englishriviera.co.uk/bid.