So Much for Groups to... SEE & DO

So Much for Groups to See and Do...

Voted a Top 10 UK Destination, few locations offer as much choice for a great Group Holiday than the English Riviera.

From morning to dusk there is an exciting choice of places to stay and visit including: Torquay, Cockington, Babbacombe, Paignton and Brixham and a fantastic choice of great value attractions for your guests to enjoy.

In this new publication, we have listed all those hotels and attractions that welcome groups, offer special group rates and provide convenient coach drop off and parking for your guests.

Popular English Riviera group attractions include three theatres: Princess Theatre (Torquay), Palace Theatre (Paignton) and Babbacombe Theatre (Babbacombe) offering a year-round programme of great evening entertainment. In addition, Kents Cavern Prehistoric Caves, Cockington Court and Craft Centre, Torquay Land Train, Babbacombe Model Village, Bygones Victorian Museum, Dartmouth Steam Railway, Sir Francis Drake's Golden Hind, Brixham Harbour, Greenway House (Agatha Christie's Holiday Home) Torre Abbey and Gardens, Torquay Museum, Paignton Zoo and Living Coasts Coastal Zoo and Aquarium all warmly welcome group visits.

In addition, you will be spoilt for choice for places to stop for coffee, lunch and afternoon tea, with Devon's Cream Tea's and local seafood famous worldwide.

Getting to the English Riviera

It's never been easier to get to the English Riviera with the new South Devon Highway cutting travel times to just over 30 minutes from the end of the M5, making us the perfect touring base for a great Group Holiday. Dartmoor National Park, Plymouth and the cathedral city of Exeter are all within an hour's drive should your guests wish to explore further afield.

How can we help you?

Please remember that the English Riviera Visitor Information Centre is on hand to help you find hotels, design your own itinerary and provide you with copy right free images to help you promote your special tour/s to Devon's Beautiful Bay.
